Clime Investment Management Announces Appointment of a new Director

Clime Investment Management Limited (ASX: CIW, “Clime” or the “Company”) today announces that it has today appointed Ms. Claire Bibby to its Board.

Ms. Bibby is a senior lawyer and professional coach, based in Sydney, Australia. Over the last 5 years, Ms. Bibby has founded and co-founded a number of business covering the legal, executive coaching, property-tech and legal-tech spaces. Prior to this, Ms. Bibby gained over 25 years of experience through senior management appointments with some of world’s largest companies and top-tier law firms.

Ms. Bibby is a Non-Executive Director of two ASX listed companies (Comms Group Limited (cloud communications (ASX:CCG)) and Arowana International Limited (investment group (ASX:AWN)), a Non-Executive Director of a charity (Marist 180) and an Industry/Professional Fellow with the University of Technology Sydney, School of Law.

This appointment is in addition to the three new Directors recently appointed on the Board of CIW in recognition of the Company’s growth focus.

Clime’s Chairman, John Abernethy, said that with Ms Bibby’s appointment, the Board is well positioned to drive Clime’s growth agenda and bring a broad array of skills across the areas of governance, risk, corporate affairs and M&A.

This announcement was authorised for release by the Board of Clime Investment Management Limited.
