

Oneview Healthcare Plc signs 5-year contract with Kingman Regional Medical Center as their newest Cloud customer

Sydney, Australia - October 20. Oneview Healthcare Plc today announced that Kingman Regional Medical Center in Kingman, Arizona signed a 5-year contract for their Cloud-based Care Experience Platform (CXP). This agreement brings Kingman Regional Medical Center (KRMC) into the Oneview customer family as the latest Cloud customer and is the first deal registered by Oneview under the Microsoft "co-sell" program.

This new contract will bring Oneview's CXP Cloud Enterprise to the 235-bed multi-campus healthcare system in northwest Arizona. With over 1,900 employees, 270 physicians/allied health professionals, and 150 volunteers in their organization, KRMC is the largest healthcare provider in the region. KRMC is also a member of the Mayo Clinic Care Network, which gives KRMC medical providers special access to Mayo Clinic's extensive knowledge and world-leading medical expertise.

Oneview's CXP Cloud Enterprise product offering enables healthcare organizations to quickly adopt technology for engaging patients, reducing non-clinical demands on care teams, and optimising clinical and operational effectiveness. Kingman will be deploying Oneview's latest Android hardware in patient rooms, as well as Samsung tablets running Oneview's enhanced Digital Door Sign product at the patient door. The contract scope includes integration with the Meditech EHR as well as Caregility's iConsult solution for virtual rounding, virtual visitation, and virtual consults.

"We are delighted to welcome Kingman to our global list of customer partnerships," Brandon Wilcher, VP of Sales for Oneview in North America commented, "We have been very impressed by the vision and innovation Kingman wishes to bring to their community."

Unifying the care experience.

The Cloud CXP offering will help Kingman deliver on their digital transformation strategy and establish a platform for innovation. The system is due to commence deployment in December, just months after contract signing, reinforcing the importance of Cloud for agility and speed to value."

"As the vision of patient care continues to change, it's important to think ahead and be innovative to figure out the best way to create a positive experience for both your patients and your staff. Being able to deliver a next-level care experience for our patients while increasing efficiency for our staff by the end of the year is a game-changer," stated Will McConnell, Kingman's Chief Executive Officer, "We are thrilled to leverage this new partnership so we can finally put our vision into reality."

The total contract value is approximately US$2.4M (A$3.2m). There are no material conditions that need to be satisfied before KRMC becomes legally bound to proceed.

This announcement was authorised by the Board of Oneview Healthcare Plc.
