

Update on Australian Competition and Consumer Commission process

Apollo Tourism & Leisure Ltd (“ATL”) (ASX: ATL) advises that the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (“ACCC”) has agreed to delay its indicative timeline in relation to the application for clearance of the proposed merger between ATL and Tourism Holdings Limited (“thl”) (NZX: THL) to allow additional time for the parties to provide, and for the ACCC to consider, further information. The ACCC has given an updated provisional date of 28 April 2022 to announce its findings.

ATL will continue to work closely with thl, the ACCC and the New Zealand Commerce Commission to progress the respective clearance applications. ATL is working with thl to agree on an updated indicative timetable for the proposed merger and will be required to obtain approval from the Supreme Court of Queensland before providing shareholders with an update.
