Adbri to launch Net Zero Emissions Roadmap on 2 May 2022

Adbri Limited (“Adbri” or “the Company”) (ASX:ABC) is pleased to announce it will launch its Net Zero Emissions (NZE) Roadmap on Monday, 2 May 2022 and will host a webcast at 11:00am (AEST) on the same day.

At Adbri’s 2021 Annual General Meeting, the Company announced its aspiration to achieve NZE by 2050 and committed to releasing its NZE Roadmap prior to the 2022 Annual General Meeting.

Adbri operates two emissions-intensive and hard-to-abate processes: the integrated manufacture of clinker and cement; and lime production. Our products help build the homes and infrastructure that are essential for a thriving society. Protecting Adbri’s economic vitality by being a low-cost, lower carbon, high-quality Australian producer is integral to delivering on our sustainability strategy.

The NZE Roadmap and webcast will outline the Company’s targets, opportunities and initiatives supporting its decarbonisation pathway.

The webcast details are set out below:

Date: Monday, 2 May 2022
