APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF COMPLIANCE AND FINANCIAL CRIMES OFFICER

MELBOURNE: Crown Resorts Limited (ASX: CWN) (Crown) refers to its announcement of 25 September 2020 and announced today that Steven Blackburn has been appointed as Crown's Chief Compliance and Financial Crimes Officer, effective 1 March 2021.

Mr Blackburn, currently Chief Financial Crime Risk Officer and Group Money Laundering Reporting Officer at National Australia Bank Ltd, will lead Crown's new Compliance and Financial Crimes department and report directly to Crown's Chief Executive Officer and the Board.

Ken Barton, Crown's Chief Executive Officer, said:

"I am very pleased Steven has agreed to join Crown. This appointment is a further significant step forward in strengthening our compliance and anti-money laundering functions. Steven is an experienced compliance executive and his substantial technical expertise and global perspectives will position him well to take a leadership role in driving further improvements through the business."

Crown's Chairman, Helen Coonan, said:

"Steven's appointment, with a direct reporting line to the Board, represents the Board's commitment to overseeing improvements across all areas of compliance and we look forward to working with him."

About Steven Blackburn:

Steven is an experienced financial crime and compliance executive. He is currently NAB's Chief Financial Crime Risk Officer and Group Money Laundering Reporting Officer, responsible for Anti-Money Laundering, Counter-Terrorist Financing, Sanctions and Anti-Bribery & Corruption at the bank. In this role he is responsible for implementation of NAB's Financial Crime program content, including oversight of Financial Crime control activity and compliance across global operations. Prior to joining NAB, Steven was the Chief AML Officer at CIBC Bank in Toronto, Canada, establishing a respected Financial Crime program.
