Q3/2021 – Quarterly Activity Report

- Record receipts from customers of US$299K for Q3 2021, an increase of 12% compared to US$267K in Q2 2021, and up 39% from US$215K in Q1 2021.
- SMX remained disciplined in terms of managing its costs during Q3 2021 with G&A costs down 11% to US$503K compared to $567K in Q2 2021. Marketing costs were kept to a minimum at US$64K, along with travel expenses due to COVID restrictions, limiting SMX team’s ability to meet customers onsite at their facilities internationally.
- SMX continued to reinforce its strong cash position, following a capital raise of $3.1 million via a placement through Euroz Hartleys subsequent to quarter end, providing a runway through to the end of Q4, 2022.
- SMX and Continental, one of the world’s leading tyre manufacturers entered into a Collaboration Agreement to provide greater transparency and traceability along its entire value chain of tyres and technical rubber products.
- SMX joins the Plastic Recycling Association of Singapore (PRAS), a leading non-profit organisation, to develop solutions for recycling challenges in Singapore and for the Southeast Asian region.

Security Matters Limited (ASX: SMX) (Security Matters or the Company), a company focused on digitising physical objects on the blockchain to enable a circular and closed loop economy, is delighted to provide an overview of its operational highlights for the three months ended 30 September 2021 (“Quarter”, “Reporting Period”) to accompany its Appendix 4C.

Corporate & Financial highlights

At the current expense rate, including receipts from customers, our funds as of 30 September, will support existing company activities until the end of Q3 2022. This is without taking into account: (i) the expected increase in revenue and receivables from customers, and (ii) the additional funds received from the $3.1 million placement which took place via Euroz Hartleys subsequent to quarter end, that will provide a runway through to the end of Q4, 2022.

Pursuant to Listing Rule 4.7C.3 and as disclosed respectively in items 6.1 and 6.2 of the Appendix 4C, US$7K was paid in respect of administrative costs to entities associated with the Directors and US$105K was paid as a repayment of borrowings to substantial shareholders of the Company.

Operational and Commercial highlights

Strategic R&D Agreement to Trace Natural Rubber with Automotive Giant, Continental

SMX and Continental, one of the world’s leading premium tyre manufactures, strengthened ties by entering into a strategic Collaboration Agreement to develop and test marker technology for use in natural rubber.

The R&D agreement utilises SMX's patented technology to track and trace the rubber and is aimed at creating greater transparency and traceability along the entire value chain of tyres and technical rubber products produced by Continental.

Using special security enhanced marker substances, the natural rubber is embedded with information regarding geographical origin, ensuring ethical sourcing and allows for the finished product to be tracked throughout its lifecycle. Extensive laboratory testing has been carried out on different types of rubber, yielding successful results, with additional testing forthcoming.

As part of the industrialization of this technology, SMX continues to develop the requirements needed to integrate the marker process with blockchain technology, which is known to be particularly forgery-proof.

This partnership is driven by SMX's goal of creating a circular economy, where sustainability and environmental impacts are a key focus. Continental shares the same vision and is working toward becoming the most environmentally and socially responsible tyre company by 2030.

By 2050, at the latest, Continental aims to use 100 percent sustainably produced materials in its tyre products and achieve complete climate neutrality along its entire value chain.

SMX Becomes a Member of the Plastic Recycling Association of Singapore (PRAS)

SMX became a member of the Plastic Recycling Association of Singapore (PRAS), a leading non-profit organisation that engages with key stakeholders, from large companies to governmental agencies and ministries. SMX and PRAS will work together to identify suitable pilot projects in the regional market, along with the establishment of a Plastic Recycling Centre of Excellence (PRCOE), which will develop solutions for recycling challenges in Southeast Asia and Singapore.

With SMX's technology and digital platform, PRAS will be able to unlock the ability to reclaim and reuse all types of plastic content, as well as the ability to detect and quantify, (i) the name of the brand owner; (ii) The % amount of recycled content; (iii) The type of plastic polymer and (iv) The number of times the plastic polymer has been recycled (loop counts).

By deploying SMX's technology, PRAS will help companies and governments across the ASEAN region to gain a competitive advantage in the circular economy starting with a PET bottle to bottle plant, followed by other mechanical and chemical recycling facilities.

Haggai Alon, Founder and CEO, commented:

"SMX continues to make strides towards the commercialisation of our patented technology, with the Company now fully funded until Q4 2022. The Company's strategic collaboration with Continental validates this goal by enabling a global tier 1 company to track and trace natural rubber throughout the supply chain and product lifecycle.

SMX is establishing its market presence within the Asia Pacific region, first in Singapore which is the international trading hub for rubber, plastics and other key commodities for its neighbouring Southeast Asian markets. Hence SMX's involvement in PRAS is one of a few key initiatives that the Company will be actively participating in collaboration. In the coming year, SMX intends to expand its focus and footprint to Japan.

SMX remains stable, retaining a strong balance sheet which enables the Company to be well resourced and confident in its progression towards the adoption and commercialisation of its technology, across its strategic market segments globally.”
