Court approves convening of Scheme Meeting

Tabcorp Holdings Limited (Tabcorp) today announced that the Supreme Court of New South Wales has ordered, among other things, that a meeting (Scheme Meeting) of Tabcorp shareholders be convened to vote on a scheme of arrangement for the proposed demerger of The Lottery Corporation Limited by Tabcorp (Demerger).

Tabcorp Directors' recommendation and conclusion of Independent Expert

The Tabcorp Directors unanimously recommend that shareholders vote in favour of the resolutions to be considered at the Scheme Meeting and a preceding general meeting to approve the capital reduction required to effect the Demerger and other matters (General Meeting).

Grant Samuel, the Independent Expert appointed by Tabcorp to review the proposed Demerger, has concluded that the Demerger is in the best interests of Tabcorp shareholders.

Demerger Booklet

Further information relating to the Demerger, including the reasons for the recommendation of the Tabcorp Directors, a copy of the Independent Expert's report, and the notices convening the General Meeting and Scheme Meeting, will be provided to shareholders in a Demerger Booklet, which is expected to be despatched on or before Friday, 8 April 2022 following registration of the Demerger Booklet with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

Tabcorp shareholders who have elected to receive notices via post will receive a hard copy of the Demerger Booklet and accompanying forms, being the proxy forms for the General Meeting and Scheme Meeting and the sale facility form (which will only be applicable to shareholders with a small holding in Tabcorp). Tabcorp shareholders who have elected to receive notices electronically will receive an email containing a link to access the Demerger Booklet and accompanying forms. All other shareholders will receive via post a letter containing details of where they can access the Demerger Booklet and enclosing the accompanying forms.

The Demerger Booklet will also be released in a further announcement and made available on Tabcorp's website (www.tabcorp.com.au) following registration with ASIC.
