ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Appointment of General Counsel and Company Secretary

Medical Developments International Limited (ASX: MVP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Tara Eaton as General Counsel and Company Secretary. Tara's first day in the company will be Monday, August 8, 2022.

Tara joins MVP from the Australian Red Cross (ARC) where she has been General Counsel since October 2018.

Prior to her current role with the ARC, Tara spent more than ten years in industry, including three years as Legal & Compliance Director at Gilead Sciences ANZ, and more than seven years as Legal Director at Merck & Co., also in Australia. She brings with her an impressive record of working with public and private stakeholders alike, pricing and business development transactions, and developing and managing compliance and risk frameworks. Prior to her start in industry, Tara spent five years as a lawyer with Minter Ellison, and Clayton Utz.

MVP CEO Brent MacGregor said: "We are thrilled to welcome Tara to our company at this stage in our evolution as a growing global business. Her varied expertise and accomplishments are directly suited to our needs as a company today, and in the years to come. We are eager to welcome her around the leadership team table".

Company Chair Gordon Naylor said: "I am looking forward to working with Tara as Company Secretary to help assure that the Board and its committees function effectively to support the business".

Anita James, CFO, will act as Company Secretary until Tara's commencement with the Company.

Authorised for release by MVP Company Secretary, Anita James.
