

ASX Announcement
3 June 2022

Austco Healthcare Appoints Chief Commercial Officer

Austco Healthcare (ASX:AHC) is pleased to announce that it has strengthened its executive leadership team with the appointment of Andrew Hall to the newly created role of Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) Australia, effective 1 July 2022.

Mr Hall joins Austco Healthcare with more than 17 years of experience in the nurse call and healthcare technology industry and has a proven track record of success in sales leadership, account management, and business development.

As CCO, Andy will be responsible for the company's overall business operations in Australia and will work with senior management to develop and implement strategies focused on sustained revenue growth in the hospital and aged-care sectors. Andy will also focus on promoting Austco's market-leading healthcare communications, clinical workflow, and real-time locating (RTLS) solutions.

Commenting on Mr Hall's appointment, CEO Clayton Astles said, "Establishing the CCO role is a pivotal step for Austco Healthcare as we execute our long-term strategic growth plan and continue to strengthen the company's executive leadership team. We believe Andy's reputation for achieving results makes him the right choice for this role, and we are delighted to welcome him to the Austco team."

The announcement was approved for release to the ASX by the board.
