Chief Executive Officer Rafael Moreno will host the session, providing an in-depth overview of the resource update, including highlights of the Colossus Project's potential as a world-leading source of critical rare earth elements. The presentation will be followed by an interactive Q&A session, allowing participants to address their questions directly to the management team.

Key Highlights to Be Discussed:

- The 140% increase in resource size to 493Mt @ 2,508ppm TREO¹ (Total Rare Earth Oxide) and unrivalled 601ppm MREO¹ (Magnetic Rare Earth Oxide) content.
- Largest Measured & Indicated IAC and highest MREO grade resource globally, standing at an industry-leading 329Mt @ 659ppm MREO¹ content.
